Prime Minister

24th July 2017

Dear Prime Minister

I am following up on a letter that my predecessor wrote to you on the 11th April 2017 regarding the Cabinet Office review of the organisational framework for combatting economic crime, for which a reply appears to remain outstanding. I would be grateful for an early response to that letter so that it may inform the early deliberations of the Treasury Committee when it forms.

I have copied this letter to the Attorney General as the minister responsible to Parliament for the Serious Fraud Office.
